YOUR LATEST NEWS FROM THE INKWELL

A Letter from the Editors

Hello GSU Armstrong Eagles! Thank you for coming on this journey with us. As you can see, we are excited to announce our latest media venture, our weekly Inkwell newsletter. As our print edition has temporarily been reduced in frequency, we have decided to create a different news source to bridge the gap. Let us know what you would like to see in next week's edition on the Google form below!

Thank you for reading,
Lila Miller and Thuy-Linh Dang,
Editors-in-Chief

SGA Election Happening!

All students are urged to vote in the 2021-2022 Student Government Association (SGA) election using the electronic ballot that was sent to their student email account yesterday, Apr. 5. Students will have an opportunity to vote through Wednesday, Apr. 7 at 5 p.m.

The Last Laugh Troupe Hosts Workshop on Campus

The Last Laugh Troupe hosted a workshop on the improv technique in theatre on Mar. 11. The workshop was held in the main stage theatre located in the Jenkins Hall on Armstrong campus of Georgia Southern University. Students on Armstrong got an opportunity to work with the Last Laugh Troupe on the “improv” technique.

Campus Spotlight: Office of Student Activities

This week’s Campus Spotlight will be highlighting the Office of Student Activities (OSA). The OSA office is essential to creating and maintaining a healthy campus environment for all students.

Psychiatric Services Available to Students

At the beginning of the semester, the University System of Georgia has partnered with Christie Campus Health, an organization dedicated to “improving the behavioral health and wellbeing of college students by helping colleges and universities expand the way they reach and support students in need.”
